

John M. Herrmann II

Vice-Chairman, Executive Committee

John M Herrmann - Partner
jherrman@kelleydrye.com
202-342-8488

EDUCATION

University of Virginia School of Law, J.D., 1996, Virginia Journal of International Law, articles editor, 1995-1996, editorial board, 1994-1995, Hardy Cross Dillard Fellow, 1994-1995
Stanford University, B.A., 1991, with honors

BAR AND COURT ADMISSIONS

District of Columbia, 1999
New York, 1997
U.S. Court of International Trade
U.S. Court of Appeals—Federal and Second Circuits

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCES

The Best Lawyers in America© (Woodward/White, Inc.), International Trade and Finance Law, 2018-2019.

Recognized as a leading attorney in International practice area by Washington D.C. Super Lawyers, 2013-2019.

John Herrmann represents clients before all U.S. trade agencies. He counsels U.S. producers of steel, metal, chemical and agricultural products in antidumping and countervailing duty proceedings, and represents clients in major litigation arising from such proceedings. John advises on customs-related matters such as classification, duty drawback and civil penalty issues. John also counsels clients regarding export control and sanctions-related issues.

John returned to Kelley Drye in 2009 following service in the administration of President George W. Bush, including work at the White House on the National Security Council staff. John worked as Special Assistant to the President and Senior Director for International Trade, Energy and Environment. In addition, John has also served as a senior advisor to the Assistant Secretary of Commerce for Import Administration at the U.S. Department of Commerce, where he advised the on issues raised in antidumping, countervailing duty and textile-related proceedings and policy matters before the agency. John also worked as a law clerk to former Chief Judge Gregory W. Carman at the United States Court of International Trade, as well as a legal intern to the Chairman of the U.S. International Trade Commission. Domestic Policy.